

SEPTEMBER

Make everyday an early learning day with these free, family-friendly events

Supporting Providers.

QUALITY
START
LOS ANGELES

Empowering Parents.™

Family Day: Art Beyond Borders

(Westwood)

Saturday 7 Spend an art-filled afternoon at the Hammer Museum! There will be activities for children of all ages including a balloon constellation, hip-hop dance performances, and music. hammer.ucla.edu

Mexican Independence Concert

(San Gabriel)

Friday 13 Watch ballet folklórico and jam out at this free outdoor concert, featuring Mariachi Cantares de Mexico! Parking is free and limited chairs are provided. missionplayhouse.org

Tarfest Music & Arts Festival

(La Brea/Miracle Mile)

Saturday 14 At this annual festival, join artists in action while listening to live music. Discover giant sculptures, create art, and move with your favorite dance collectives! launchla.org/tarfest-festival/2019/

Calle Olvera: Mexican Independence Day

(Downtown, near Union Station)

Celebrate Mexico's independence from Spain at Olvera Street! With children's workshops, artisan exhibits, and historical displays, there is something for everyone in the family. calleolvera.com/events

Museum Day

(various museums)

Saturday 21 Sign up with your email address to receive two free museum passes for Saturday the 21st to any of the 15 participating museums in the county. drive.google.com

Coastal Cleanup Day

(70+ sites throughout the county)

Get outside and help create a cleaner Los Angeles. Your family can join the effort at 1 of 70 clean up sites meeting on the coast and inland throughout the county. Register today! healthebay.org/event/coastal-cleanup-day-2019/

LA Libros Festival

(Downtown)

Saturday 28 It's a book festival in two languages! Meet local authors, listen to live music, and enjoy storytime at this bilinugal book festival. www.eventbrite.com

Watts Towers Day of the Drum Festival

(Watts)

Explore a day of international music at Watts Towers! With Aztec traditional dances, a Japanese drumming group, a local marching band, and more, your family will spend the day listening and learning all about music. www.wattstowers.org