

MARCH

Make everyday an early learning day with these free, family-friendly events

Japanese Storytime (Little Tokyo)

Saturday 7 The LA Public Library's Little Tokyo branch invites you to a fun and lively Japanese storytime. Listen to exciting and entertaining stories told in Japanese by their STAR Readers.
lapl.org

Festival of the Kite (Redondo Beach)

Bring your favorite kite or buy a new one at one of SoCal's longest running kite festivals. Compete for prizes for the Highest Flying Kite, Best Handmade Kite, Youngest Kite Flyer, and more! Enjoy live music and join in the fun on the beach.
redondopier.com

8 Sunday

Parker Bent at the Wallis (Beverly Hills)

Parker Bent will delight audiences of children and families with his original music, sly wit, and warm humor. You may even find yourself on stage singing with him! This free concert is at 11:00am.
thewallis.org

Parent Empowerment Day (Compton)

Saturday 14 Join Crystal Stairs, Inc. for a day of free workshops, resources, and services that will empower and strengthen your family. Workshop topics include Career Development, Financial Literacy, Meditation & Mindfulness, and more! FREE childcare and parking provided.
eventbrite.com

St Patrick's Day Parade (Hermosa Beach)

Over 20,000 participants and spectators will enjoy this seven-block parade down Pier Avenue. The Irish theme is celebrated with bagpipers from the Emerald Society, floats, horses, and four-legged friends from the Irish Setters Club.
hbchamber.net

14 Saturday

Recycling for Play (Santa Monica)

This pop-up event features interactive play with recycled materials for children and families to learn about the benefits of recycling and reusing household items. There will also be a reading area with children's books and resources for recycling.
santamonica.gov

Monrovia Street Fair & Market (Monrovia)

Friday 27 Bring the entire family to peruse organic and nutritious produce, arts and crafts, and more. The fair also features rides, live music, bounce houses, and more.
cityofmonrovia.org

CANCELLED

LA Summer Camp Fair (Northridge)

The LA Summer Camp Fair is a free live, interactive event for ages 5-12. Activities include all-day activities, raffles, and refreshments.
eventbrite.com

CANCELLED

29 Sunday