One Minute till Bedtime: 60 Second Poems to Send You Off to Sleep

Rhyming Dust Bunnies
Jan Thomas

Guacamole: Un Poema Para Cocinar
Jorge Argueta

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom
Bill Martin

Button up! Wrinkled Rhymes
Alice Schertle

Jitomates Risuenos/
Laughing Tomatoes
Francisco Alarcon

Every Month is a New Year:
Celebrations Around the World
Marilyn Singer & Susan L. Roth

Monthly Activity

Build your child's early literacy skills by trying the activity below:

🎵 It's Rhyme Time 🎵

1. As you go through your day, find ways to create rhymes about rhyming everyday tasks. They don't have to make sense, the sillier the better.

2. Ask your child to finish a rhyme you start, challenging them to listen to the sounds of the words.

Here is an example:

Why? Research says children's responses to sounds in kindergarten is linked to their reading abilities in 4th grade.

Monthly Family Reading Tip

Laugh
Use LOUD, quiet, and silly voices to make reading more engaging and fun for your children.

An early learning collaboration by:

Los Angeles County Library
Los Angeles Public Library
Quality Start Los Angeles
LA County Library
Supporting Parents, Empowering Futures