In Recognition of Labor Day

Thank you to ALL the #childcareheroes!

Quick Facts: Labor Day...
- was first inspired by a similar worker celebration in Canada
- celebrates the work and rights of individuals in the workforce
- first took place in 1882 & was proposed to be celebrated by a parade and a festival for workers and their families

Conversation Starters for Little Learners:
- What do you want your job to be when you grow up? why?
- Why do you think people have to work?
- If we could have a Labor Day parade this year, What would you like to see in the parade?
