

Tips for Supporting Your Dual Language Learner

Praise your child's efforts to speak your home language.

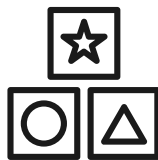

Take your child to cultural festivals or events to learn more about their heritage.

Teach your child songs in your home language or traditional cultural dances.

Read books to your child in your home language or that feature your culture.

Play favorite or cultural games while speaking your home language.

Ask your child's teachers and caregivers to support their home language.

Scan here!

To learn more, visit:

<https://qualitystartla.org/resources/resources-for-families/>